La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With 7,000 men and women attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers. Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptiste de la Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution, which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia, is on an 82.2-acre, 43-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 418 full and part-time, with 45 different programs of study offered in which to major. With a student-faculty ratio of 15-1 and an average class size of 21, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goal.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving 8-10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor or diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a summer or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are Connelly Library the Roland Holyroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1,700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 700 public and private schools in 30 states and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1,800 resident students in 12 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 39 Fulbright grants since 1970, a total exceeded by only two other institutions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 4% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

Recently, La Salle has enjoyed increasing national attention, including:

- The New York Times, which selected La Salle as one of only 200 schools to appear in its guide book, Best Buys in College Education.

- The U. S. News & World Report, which listed the university among the top five college in student retention in its survey of "America's Best Colleges".

- Newsday, the influential Long Island newspaper, which referred to La Salle as a "university on the rise" in a recent article entitled "Where the Hot Schools Are."

- The 1990 edition of Barron's 300: Best Buys In College Education, which names La Salle among the institutions that offer quality academic programs at prices below the national average.

- A nationwide study of nearly 900 private undergraduate institutions which ranked La Salle in the top 4% since 1977 as an originating school for Ph.D.s.

- La Salle's Accounting Department has produced more partners in the top Philadelphia public accounting firms than any other college or university in the city.

- Since 1977, more than 99% of all students recommended by the University have been offered entry into medical schools.

- La Salle ranks among the nation's leaders in student retention; nine of every 10 freshmen return for their sophomore year.

- Each year, recruiters representing nearly 200 companies and organizations visit La Salle's campus to conduct job interviews

MAAC Coach of the Year

1986-87, 1987-88, 1988-89

Big Five Coach of the Year

1986-87, 1987-88

With five years of Division I coaching experience and over 100 wins to his credit, John Miller has quickly become one of the most successful coaches of collegiate women's basketball. During his reign as head coach at La Salle he has run his overall record to 105-41 (.719), making him the winningest coach in Explorer history.

Last season Miller guided the Explorers to their seventh consecutive winning season in his fifth year as head coach. He also became the first La Salle women's coach to ever amass 100 victories. This 100th win, 76-69 defeat of Siena, also had further reaching significance. It was Miller's 250th career win (including his 150 high school victories) and it was the 300th victory for La Salle women's basketball.

Last year's team was most notable for all the individual successes that it produced under Miller's guidance. In Mary Greybush, the La Salle women's basketball program saw their first academic all-american. Greybush was selected to the GTE Academic All-America Third Team after being named to the GTE District II All-Academic team for the second time in her career. Along with being chosen as a first team all-star in both the MAAC and Big 5, Greybush was also named an ECAC

Second Team All-Star. Senior Denise Kayajian was named to the Big 5 Second Team with sophomore Jennifer Cole (a GTE District II softball all-academic selection), and in addition Cole was a MAAC Second Team selection. In the true La Salle tradition, Miller has proven that he is an exceptional recruiter of the well rounded student-athlete.

He has led the Explorers to three 20+ win seasons, three MAAC regular season titles, three Philadelphia Big 5 titles and three La Salle Invitational titles. In 1987-88 La Salle earned its first ever NCAA at-large bid - a feat the Explorers repeated the following year on the merits of 27-2 record. During their second trip to the tournament the Explorers won their first round game, the first win ever for a MAAC team and the only for a MAAC women's team. Miller's talents have been recognized, as he has earned three MAAC Coach of the Year awards, two Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year awards and a regional Converse Coach of the Year award.

Miller coached extensively at the high school level before taking over the women's program from Bill "Speedy" Morris in 1986. In 1976, he was named the head coach at Archbishop Ryan High School. During his nine-year stint at Ryan, Miller was twice named Catholic League Coach of the Year before taking over at Monsignor Bonner High School.

He closed out his high school coaching career at Bonner with 150 wins to his credit.

A 1969 graduate of St. Charles Seminary in Philadelphia, Miller holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy, as well as a Master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from Villanova (1976). Originally from Reading, PA, Miller and his wife Emily now reside in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia with their two-year old daughter Katie.

Assistant Coach

Thomas Lochner

Assistant Coach

Tom Lochner is entering his third season as full-time assistant coach, after serving for two years as a volunteer assistant. A tireless worker, Lochner has been John Miller's right-hand man in all phases of running the program at La Salle. He has proven to be invaluable, shining most in the areas of advance scouting and player recruitment.

Lochner came to La Salle in 1987 after meeting John Miller at the NCAA Women's Final Four. Prior to this Lochner coached girls basketball at his alma mater, Bishop Gibbons in Schenectady, NY, from 1980-87, the last four years as head coach of the varsity squad. During his head coaching tenure, Bishop Gibbons went 87-13, winning the New York State Championship in the large school division with a 26-2 mark in 1986. His team also claimed three sectional titles.

Lochner is a 1989 graduate of Temple University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education/Sports Administration. He also holds an Associate's degree in Marketing from Hudson Valley Community College. Lochner makes his home in Havertown, PA.

This year, as La Salle prepares to meet the challenges of a new season, the Explorers will celebrate the 20th year of women's basketball at the university. The program record surpassed the 300 win mark last season and now stands at 305-178. Having been graced with two exceptional recruits and a returning cast of both seasoned and budding talent, John Miller's 1991-92 La Salle Explorers formulate a team worthy of success in this celebratory year.

The goals that Miller has set are clear-cut and defined. He wants his team to win 20 games, and capture both the MAAC Championship and Big 5 title. To attain these goals Miller feels three things must happen: 1) avoid serious injury, 2) come together as a team and realize potential, and 3) be fortunate enough to win the close games. Witness this, and you will see a team bound for greatness. "We have a good combination of players this year," said Miller, "that will surprise a lot of people."

Of immediate importance this season is replacing the production of senior co-captains Mary Greybush (19.5 ppg, 9.3 rpg) and Denise Kayajian (12.5 ppg, 3.8 apg). Greybush, a GTE Third Team Academic All-American and all-everything, became La Salle's sixth all-time scorer with 1,404 points, while Kayajian's quickness and scorer's touch earned her Big 5 second team honors. "Somebody or a combination of people will have to step up," Miller explained.

Controlling the point will be senior tri-captain Mimi Harris. An adept playmaker, Harris played 834 minutes last year and averaged a healthy 6.1 assists per outing. This total placed her second among the MAAC leaders. A starter in 21 games, Harris' experience should bode well for the Explorers.

Spelling Harris will be the job of freshman Cindy Pierce. A true motivational force, Pierce's desire and aggressive style of play should take her far.

In the shooting guard position a wealth of experience exists. Junior tri-captain Jennifer McGowan returns ready for action after medically red-shirting during the 1990-91 season. Her defensive alertness remains a key component of her game along with her ability to move the ball quickly up the court.

A starter in all 28 games last year, long-range artist Jennifer Cole begins her junior campaign after rewriting the La Salle three-point record books. She now has 58 career 3-pt. field goals and this total will only continue to grow. Cole's shooting abilities make her an outside threat in every game.

The remaining Explorer guard is newcomer Allyson Blue. With her athletic talent she will be called upon to play both the point and shooting guard. Blue's value stands in her ability to run the fast break and make key split-second decisions.

Up front the most experienced player is junior Dolores Seiberlich. One of only two players to see action in all 28 games, she shot with great accuracy (90-193, .466) and was second on the team in rebounding (5.1 rpg). Seiberlich's abilities could make her La Salle's top inside player this year.

Battling for a starting role will once again be junior Tina Tunink. Tunink transferred to La Salle last year from Butler County Community College (KS), but had to redshirt the season because of stress fractures. With a proven aptitude for scoring, Tunink should contribute some big numbers.

Small forward Laura Reigstad raised her scoring average to 5.3 ppg last season after seeing increased action. One of this year's tri-captains, she will be vying for a permanent role as a starter after earning eight starts in '90-91.

The remaining three forwards on the team consist of a strong class of sophomores. Lisa Auman returns as the most experienced, having played 27 games and starting in two. She averaged 4.2 ppg and in doing so had the highest field goal percentage (.511) on the team. Auman's powerful game could land her a starting role. In Lori Hamilton and Mary Heller exist two very promising players. Hamilton's rebounding strengths will help La Salle, while Heller's inside scoring game and blocking talents should be an asset.

This year's schedule presents another formidable challenge. The MAAC will continue its pace upward in the conference ranks, with all the teams of authority returning ever strong. "The powerful teams of last year will still have a presence," said Miller. "Siena, Manhattan and St. Peter's have graduated very few people, and Fairfield has replaced Tricia Sacca and Lisa Mikelic with a very good recruiting class." The MAAC scenario should provide many interesting developments this year.

The non-league lineup won't be a cake-walk either. La Salle travels to the Lady Bonnies' Classic at St. Bonaventure in early December with Akron and Columbia and will then prepare to host the annual eight team La Salle Invitational after Christmas. The strongest competition appears to be represented in Marquette, Butler and Boston University. In January the Explorers will make a hometown visit for Indiana native Jennifer Cole. On the card is the high scoring Valparaiso Crusaders who averaged just under 100 points last season and the Notre Dame Fighting Irish who scored one of the top recruiting classes in the country. Combined with the usual Big 5 competition of rivals Villanova, St. Joseph's, Temple and Penn, this coming season will provide plenty of challenge and excitement.

Mimi Harris joins Laura Reigstad and Jennifer McGowan as one of the Explorers' tri-captains this year. Harris put in 832 minutes over 27 games at point guard last season, making her the most experienced at her position. The strongest point of Harris' game remains the set-up pass. With 165 assists last year, she has moved up to sixth place on La Salle's all-time list with 311 total assists. Similar production this year could catapult her to the top of this elite group. Harris just missed tying Kelly Greenberg's school record of 19 assists in a game when she handed out 18 in a 100-54 victory over Iona. An unusual statistical high occurred for Harris at Niagara when she collected 13 rebounds. Twelve of these were defensive boards. Harris improved her scoring average to 4.1 ppg last season, but with the departure of guard Denise Kayajian's 13 ppg, she will look to shoot the ball more.

Harris played in every game as a sophomore at point guard and started in 14. She led the team in assists, dishing out 114 on the year for a 3.9 average. Her most productive night came against St. Joseph's when she was near perfect in 18 minutes of work - 11 points (4-5 FG; 1-1 3PT; 2-2 FT). Harris also registered two La Salle individual season highs - best free throw percentage (6-6 versus Canisius), and assists (10 versus the University of District of Columbia).

During her freshman year Harris backed up All-MAAC point guard Kelly Greenberg, the La Salle all-time assist leader. She appeared in 23 games dishing out 32 assists. Twice she handed out a season-high five.

High School: Harris made the All-Michigan Dream Team as a senior at Powers Catholic. She was an All-Conference player two years and an All-State player in 1988, while being named an AAU All-American in 1987. She averaged 12.1 points and 9.6 assists as a senior at Powers Catholic, while the team went 20-3.

Forward

Sparta High School

Sparta, NJ

Major: Elementary Education

Laura Reigstad enters her senior year having been named a tri-captain by John Miller. She played in 27 games last season, starting in eight. Highlighting her performances was an explosive outing at the University of Detroit. Reigstad came off the bench to spark the Explorers with 6-9 shooting in the first period, and then continued with a hot hand to reach 18 total points in just 27 minutes. But perhaps her best game of the season was saved for last. In the first round of the MAAC Tournament versus Manhattan, Reigstad gave the Explorers a 35 minute, 19-point performance. She shot 64.3 percent from the field, pulled eight boards and dished five assists - all of this while committing zero turnovers. A total team player, Reigstad will guide La Salle with championship experience in her final campaign.

Reigstad enjoyed an active sophomore year, starting in the Explorers' first 13 games. A pure shooter, she was deadly from the corner and from the free throw line (78.8 percent). Reigstad started the season off on a tear, hitting for her career high in points and rebounds during the first two games. Season highlights include an 11 rebound performance in her first collegiate start vs. Morgan State, and a 15-point spree in a down to the wire victory over Temple.

During her rookie season Reigstad played in 19 games, scoring in eight. She had a season-high eight points twice - versus Lehigh and Robert Morris. A sharp shooter off the bench, Reigstad shot 16-31 from the floor for 51.6 percent.

High School: Reigstad scored 1,303 career points at Sparta High School, where her teams went 100-7 in four years. Her team won the state championship, two sectional titles and four league titles in those four years. She was named to USA Today's High School Top 10 in the state of New Jersey and was an all-league and all-state selection as a senior while she averaged 17.9 points, 8.0 rebounds and 4.7 assists. She earned six varsity letters at Sparta, four in basketball.

Jennifer McGowan

5-7, JR

Guard

Bishop McDevitt

Glenside, PA

Major: Psychology

Everyone expected big production from Jennifer McGowan in the 1990-91 season, but a series of jaw operations forced her to red-shirt the year after playing just five games. At the time of her departure she was averaging 6.4 ppg and 5.0 rpg. McGowan's biggest strength still lies in her defensive game. A tenacious ball hawk, she is usually assigned to defend the quickest guard. In her two years, McGowan has registered 91 steals. With the promise of a new season, McGowan is ready to pursue success on the basketball court once again.

McGowan experienced a very successful sophomore season. She averaged 33 minutes per game, second behind Greybush. Playing primarily from the shooting guard position, she averaged 2.2 steals (first on team) and 5.7 rebounds (second on team). She also dropped in an average of 10.6 points per night. She was the top scorer six times and the top rebounder ten times. Her career high came versus St. Peter's when she pumped in 22 points on 11-17 FG shooting. McGowan entered her name into the La Salle record books tying the mark for most steals in a game (7). Her honors for the year included being named to the La Salle Invitational All-Tournament Team and the All-Big 5 Second Team.

As a freshman McGowan saw the most action of any rookie. She was one of just four players in 1988-89 to see action in all 31 contests. She started six games, playing both the small forward and shooting guard. McGowan averaged 5.4 points and 3.0 rebounds. A strong defensive player, she was often given the toughest defensive assignments by Coach Miller.

High School: McGowan set the Bishop McDevitt career scoring record (boys or girls) with a four-year total of 1,388 points. She scored 21.1 points and added 10 rebounds, six assists and five steals per game as a senior while being named Most Valuable Player of the Catholic League's Northern Division. She was voted to the All-Catholic first team three straight years. McDevitt won the Catholic League Championships three times during her tenure and compiled a 89-14 mark in four seasons.

Jennifer Cole

5-8, JR

Guard

Valparaiso High School

Valparaiso, IN

Major: Chemistry

Jennifer Cole spent no time resting on the merits of an exceptional freshman campaign. She started all 28 games for La Salle as a sophomore and was honored as a Big 5 and MAAC second team all-star. Cole's aggressive scoring punch led her to place second on the team with 14.8 ppg. Cole was also third in rebounding (4.8 rpg), while she led the team in steals with 55. The most exciting feature of Cole's game continues to be the three-point shot. This past season she rewrote the La Salle three-point record books, claiming five records for herself and sharing another. Her career total now stands at 58-151. Cole registered a personal best at Iona when she connected for 29 points in an exemplary shooting exhibition (11-17 FG, 5-7 3-PT, 2-2 FT). This was the first of three outings that Cole would hit for five three-pointers in one game. With a solid career already intact, Cole is ready to concentrate on elevating La Salle to a higher level.

Midway through her freshman year Cole earned a spot in the starting line-up and never relinquished it. Her consistent outside shooting touch, coupled with her ability to hit the three-pointer made her a threat to Explorer opponents all season. Her best game was a 20-point effort against St. Joseph's where she hit 8-14 FG and 4-7 three pointers. She duplicated her then career high with another 20-point outing in first round MAAC Tournament action versus Niagara. Cole's other area of expertise was at the charity stripe, shooting 87.5 percent (28-32) to lead La Salle in '89-90. For her impressive rookie debut, Cole was named the Big 5 Rookie of the Year and an All-MAAC rookie.

High School: Cole finished as the Valparaiso record-holder in points with 1,083 and in rebounds with 429. She averaged 16.7 points, seven rebounds, three assists and four steals per game while leading her team as a senior to a 22-2 record. At the completion of her senior year she was selected to the third team Associated Press All-State team and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Duneland Athletic Conference. Cole was also a Hoosier All-State Academic Honorable Mention.

Center

Upper Moreland High School

Hatboro, PA

Major: Communications

Dolores Seiberlich stepped up her game and earned a starting role in all 28 contests as a sophomore. She was one of only two players to remain healthy and make all 28 appearances. Seiberlich's game improved most over the second half of the season, evidenced by an outpouring of statistics. Over the last 14 games she averaged 14.2 ppg as compared to her season average of 7.4 ppg. In the season-ending loss to Manhattan, Seiberlich pumped in a career-high 22 points (9-14 FG, 4-5 FT) to lead all scorers. Rebounding was also a hot topic with Seiberlich as she improved to a 5.1 per game average. She registered a career-high of 10 caroms in just 25 minutes of work against Niagara. If Seiberlich remains on track, all indications point to even bigger production in the 1991-92 season.

Seiberlich saw action in 19 of the Explorers games during her rookie campaign, shooting at a 40% accuracy rate. Seiberlich's best game was a five-point outing versus league foe Loyola. Possessed with a keen defensive ability, she collected 10 blocks and 10 steals on the season.

High School: Seiberlich led an impressive high school career, averaging 18.5 ppg, 13 rpg and seven blocks, along with becoming the first girl in Upper Moreland history to surpass the 1,000 point plateau with 1,100 total points. Upper Moreland registered a 21-5 record her senior year and captured the Suburban One Freedom Division Championship. She was selected as the Montgomery Newspapers Girl's Basketball Player of the Year after her senior year, and in addition she competed on the Southeast-North Scholastic team which won a Bronze medal at the Keystone State Games.

Tina Tunink will enter this season with two years of eligibility remaining, after being declared a medical redshirt last year due to stress fractures. After intensive rehabilitation she is expected to return healthy and in top form. Tunink transferred to La Salle from Butler County Community College (KS) where she was voted team Most Valuable Player in her senior year after averaging 16.2 ppg. Regionally, Tunink was ranked second in field goal percentage (.590) and free throw percentage (.810). She finished second in career scoring with 901 points and third in rebounding with 403. Participating in the tough Jay Hawk West Conference, Tunink earned All-Conference status for two years and All-Region during her final year. Last season Tunink was expected to help the program immediately and this year is no different. Playing mainly from the power forward position, she is extremely offensive minded and will look to put the ball up when she gets anywhere close to the basket.

High School: As a high school player, Tunink led Calhan High School to two state championships during her junior and senior years, with a 46-0 record. Calhan's record was 86-5 with Tunink on the squad during her four years. She also was a four-year member of the track team.

Lisa Auman saw the most action of any freshman, putting in 355 minutes over 27 games. In the two starts that she earned against Iona and Loyola she put forth her two best games of the year. Auman matched her season-high scoring effort of 14 points in both games and set another high in rebounding with eight against Iona. She finished the year averaging 4.2 ppg, placing her sixth on the team. Auman left a big impression on opponents with her soft shooting touch. Making more than half of her baskets (.511), she finished second on the team in the accuracy department. With nowhere to go but up the ladder of improvement, Auman will be a top contender for a starting role this season.

High School: Lisa Auman declared her intent to attend La Salle in the beginning of her senior year, making her the only early signee of her class. Playing out of Daniel Boone High School in Birdsboro, PA, Auman finished with 1,285 total points, placing her 14th in Berks League history. During her senior year she came into her own, scoring 606 points for a 17.3 average to lead Daniel Boone to an undefeated 27-0 regular season and a Berks League Championship. This was Boone's third title game appearance in four years. They finished with a final record of 33-2. Auman was named the 1990 Pottstown All-Area Player of the Year, the Berks County Outstanding Senior Player, the Daniel Boone MVP and in addition she received special honorable mention on the Pennsylvania Coaches All-State poll.

Forest City Regional H.S.
Uniondale, PA
Major: Mathematics

Mary Heller saw action in 17 games as a freshman, showing great signs of promise over the last several outings. She scored at an average of 2.3 ppg for the year with her biggest production of 10 points coming against Iona. In this 100-point shellacking of the Lady Gaels, Heller shot 5-7 from the field to register her 10 points in a season-high 23 minute appearance. In the Explorers' next game versus Loyola, Heller posted impressive numbers again. In just nineteen minutes she hauled in eight rebounds and also blocked four shots - an Explorer season high. Blocking shots and shooting at a high rate of accuracy (.560 FG%) have proven to be her fortes. Her field goal percentage was a forerunner for the Explorers. Look for Heller to gain increased playing time and to continue her high impact style of play.

High School: An untapped talent, Heller came to La Salle after having played only three years of organized basketball. In this short time, the 6-0 center scored 1,629 career points, taking the Northeast Atlantic Conference scoring title during her junior and senior years. Heller's strengths lie mainly in her pure, athletic ability. She averaged 26.1 ppg in her final season along with 14.5 rpg, 5.1 steals, 3.5 blocks and 3.2 assists, earning her a second NAC Player of the Year award, the Scranton Times Regional Player of the Year award and honorable mention on the Pennsylvania Coaches All-State poll. Behind Heller, Forest City Regional won 25 straight games, captured league and District 12 Class A crowns and a berth in the PIAA Class A quarter finals her senior year.

Lori Hamilton
6-0, SO
Forward/Center
Gallia Academy
Gallipolis, OH
Major: Undecided (Science)

With a year of competition behind her, Lori Hamilton has established herself as a strong inside player not to be pushed around. Playing in 26 games she took advantage of every missed shot, landing 37 rebounds in 201 minutes. On the offensive boards Hamilton produced several three-point plays by muscling her opponents away from missed shots. Another strong point of Hamilton's game is her ability to take care of the ball. She had the lowest turnover average on the team committing a mere 0.3 per game. Miller will call upon Hamilton for her defensive talents in the upcoming season.

High School: Hamilton came to La Salle from Gallipolis, OH, making her the first player from Ohio to ever put on an Explorer uniform. Hamilton's high school credentials show an experienced champion, as Gallia Academy was District Champion, Sectional Champion and S.E.O.A.L. Champion during her tenure. Individually, she received All-League and All-District 1st Team honors, as well as All-State Honorable and Special Mention.

An extremely athletic player, Allyson Blue has been predicted by John Miller to play both the point and off guard with great success for La Salle. Her strengths lie mainly in her ability to shoot the ball well and run the fast break, as evidenced by the 25.3 ppg and 7.2 apg that she averaged as a senior. Last year she also guided Mahanoy Area to its second consecutive Class AA title with a 72-65 victory over Pine Grove. Blue led all scorers with 37 points. In Blue's first two years of high school, Mahanoy Area won back to back Class A titles. She finished as the second leading scorer in school history with 1,819 points, while during these four years Mahanoy Area went 116-10. Blue was named to several all-star teams following her prolific senior year, among which include the Hazelton Standard-Speaker All-Area team, the Reading Eagle All-Anthracite first team and the Pottsville Republican first team. She was also honored as a USA Today Honorable Mention for Pennsylvania.

Tabbed as a great motivator, Cindy Pierce will bring all of her enthusiasm and energy to La Salle's backcourt this coming season. Miller will utilize Pierce's quickness at the point, along with her great court savvy. As a senior at Hammonton High School she scored 23.2 ppg to finish with 1,465 career points, tops in Hammonton basketball history. Her great anticipation and quickness also helped her to average 6.1 steals per game. In addition to posting big numbers on the score board, she also helped her teammates out by contributing 7.3 assists per game. Hammonton earned a 14-12 record and a berth in the New Jersey Group 2 Tournament behind Pierce. Individually, Pierce earned the All-South Jersey scoring title and she was named to the following all-star teams: First Team All-South Jersey, First Team All-Conference and First Team All-Group 2.

Isa Salle

More Than Just 16-12

It was another challenging season for John Miller and his Explorers, but more importantly a winning one. La Salle battled through a multitude of setbacks to finish with an overall slate of 16-12 and a fourth place finish in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference.

For Miller, this was his fifth winning season in as many years. "I thought we had a tremendous season," said Miller. "It was a crazy year with all the sickness, injuries, and adversity that we had to face, but we came together as a group and that's what it is all about."

To say that it was a crazy year is perhaps an understatement. The roll call of calamities included games missed due to bone spurs, chin stitches, wisdom tooth extraction, stress fractures, jaw operations, and inflamed tonsils. In all, 72 games were missed amongst nine players, including two red-shirted seasons by veteran starter Jen McGowan and junior college transfer Tina Tunink. Through it all, though, there was one constant, and that was the winning spirit that Miller and his staff instilled in each player.

This attitude was evident throughout the year as the Explorers battled their way to some very climactic victories. The most impressive of these was a 76-69 defeat of the Siena Saints, who arrived in Philadelphia with an undefeated mark of 7-0 in the MAAC and a 13-2 overall record. This win was made even sweeter by the fact that it was John Miller's 100th victory at La Salle, making him the first to ever reach this milestone as a La Salle women's head coach.

Jennifer Cole

And who could forget all of the other highlights along the way? If you follow Explorer basketball, you were there for them all. There were the two Big 5 games versus Penn and Villanova that were aired on PRISM. In yet another Big 5 grudge match, senior Mary Greybush reached a monumental point in her career as she pumped in her 1,000th point in a 70-

61 victory over Temple. She became only the ninth player in La Salle history to join the elite 1,000 point club and she concluded her career in sixth place all-time. In the month of January, Greybush continued to rewrite the record books. Despite a last second 67-69 loss to Michigan,

Greybush dominated the game with a 36-point performance for a new La Salle single game scoring record. And perhaps the most entertaining game of the year to watch was the 100-54 victory over Iona. After tilting the score to the century mark for only the fifth time in La Salle history, every Explorer had an all-star performance to cherish. The most vivid of these memories are Mimi Harris' 18 assists, falling just one shy of a school record, and freshman Lisa Auman's spectacular, 14-point second half performance. It was only fitting that Auman registered the 100th point on the scoreboard.

La Salle made an early exit from the MAAC Tournament at the hands of Manhattan, but the season was none the less momentous. It was a year of more than just wins and losses. The players proved that Explorer hoop means basketball at its finest and excitement pushed to the limit!

Brother F. Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., Ph. D. President

Brother F. Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., Ph.D., who became La Salle University's 26th President on January 1, 1977, has established himself as one of the nation's leading spokesmen for Catholic Higher Education.

Under his direction, La Salle has enjoyed a significant amount of academic and physical expansion. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania conferred "University" status on the institution in 1984 and La Salle now offers graduate programs in such disciplines as Business Administration, Education, Theological Studies, Pastoral Counseling, Bilingual Studies, Nursing, and Psychology. New facilities constructed during his tenure include the $11 million Connelly Library, 75 townhouses accommodating 375 students, the adaption of the former St. Basil's home to house 250 students, an all-weather track, and a 500-seat dining hall.

In 1989, Brother Ellis was among a select group of Americans who joined delegates from colleges and universities in discussing the Vatican's role in world-wide Catholic higher education with Pope John Paul II in Rome. He has traveled extensively to Europe, China, and the Middle East.

Born in Baltimore in 1928, Brother Ellis, a member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools since 1946, joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as an assistant professor of English. He has been at the university since then except for a term as principal of La Salle High School, in Miami, Florida from 1962 to 1964.

Brother Ellis served at Philadelphia's West Catholic High School for Boys from 1951 to 1958 and again from 1959 to 1960.

Brother Ellis, a 1946 graduate of Baltimore's Calvert Hall College High School, received an A.B. degree in English from the Catholic University of America, Washington D.C., in 1951. He earned a master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

Brother Ellis is past chairman of the Board of Directors of the 220-member Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities and chairman of Philadelphia's Campus Boulevard Corporation, a cooperative organization of institutions located adjacent to La Salle University on Olney Avenue.

He was the chairman for 1986-87 of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities and is on the boards of The Philadelphia Urban Affairs Partnership, the Police Athletic League, Professionalism Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, Catholic Charities of Philadelphia, Delaware Valley Citizens' Crime Commission, and the Free Library of Philadelphia.

Robert Mullen Director of Athletics

Under Robert Mullen, Director of Athletics, La Salle University has achieved national recognition. The Explorers' men's basketball program has made five consecutive post-season tournament appearances and the women's team earned berths in the 1987-88 and 1988-89 NCAA Tournament. La Salle has captured the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup (symbolic of athletic excellence) in four of the five years of his tenure.

La Salle University has made many improvements in facilities and within its athletic structure, with Mullen acting as the catalyst for these changes. His efforts in moving the men's basketball home site to the Philadelphia Civic Center have added a new era of excitement to La Salle basketball.

Mullen has been President of the MAAC and Chairman of the Philadelphia Big 5. Prior to joining the La Salle staff, he was Director of Athletics at the University of Southern Colorado and Loras College. Mullen has been the President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association and was the College Representative to the Executive Council of the National Association of College Athletic Directors (NACDA). He also served as athletic administrator to the Goodwill Games in 1986 in Moscow. He has been on the NCAA Nomination Committee and recently was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Sports Congress.

Bob originally hails from the Delaware Valley, but left his home in Chester, PA, in 1948, for residence in Park Forest, a suburb of Chicago, where he obtained most of his education and athletic background. He played several sports in high school and college, although basketball was his main interest. A graduate with both a B.S., Ed., and M.S., Ed., from Northern Illinois University, Bob has been a head coach in almost every sport in the secondary level and an Athletic Director and head college basketball coach for half of the last three decades. Mullen had over 300 victories in just 16 seasons, including several trips to the NAIA National Tournament.

On the family side, Mullen and his wife, Marcia, have four children: Sherry, a Respiratory Therapist, is married with two children, living in Elgin, Ill; Scott, a newly-wed who is in facility management with Spectacor Management Group, and is a former Drake University wide receiver; Kelly, another newly-wed and a teacher in Pennsauken, NJ, and a former member of the La Salle track team, and Rob, a junior at Ursinus College, where he is a member of the football team.
